The Mighty Virus

The world so vast
Its size immense
Yet it can all be flipped
By a little virus

The Globe lay frozen
Time did halt
Restaurants, Theaters, schools
All empty, void, vacant.

Friends and Family
All the people you knew
Now barricade themselves
Distanced six feet from you

Fear, Anxiety, Depression
Trapped in the same white walls
Devoid of interaction
But a day from the ward

My life in shambles
I write a letter
Who shall I thank
But the mighty virus
